

10 Sept 2015: “World Suicide Prevention Day” was observed by College of Nursing, AIIMS, Bhubaneswar on 10 Sep 2015. Mrs Dharitri Swain, HOD In-charge, College of Nursing, started the programme by lighting the lamp and by a welcome address. Officiating Director cum Professor and Head, Dept. of Physiology, Dr. S.C. Mahapatra inspired the student by his speech and led the oath ‘I will never commit suicide and ready to face any type of challenge’ to the undergraduate students of Nursing College. This was followed by a session on the theme: “Reach out to save the lives” by Dr. Suravi Patra, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry, AIIMS Bhubaneswar. The students also put up a Mime on the theme “Reach out to save the lives”. The programme was brought to an end with vote of thanks by programme co-ordinator, Mr Nanda Kumar P, Asst. Prof, College of Nursing.

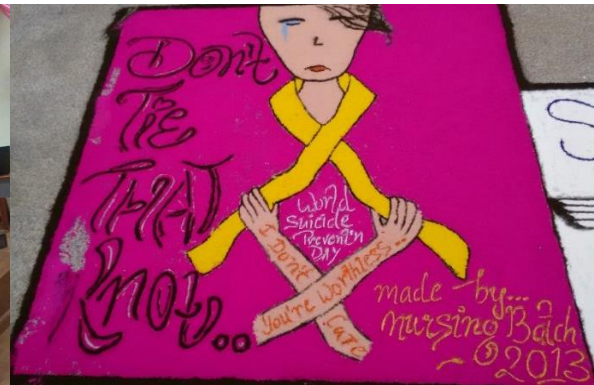

“World Suicide Prevention Day” inauguration of the program and lamp lighting

Distribution of prizes for Rangoli making

Mime by students of Nursing College on the theme “Reach out to save the lives”

Rangoli made by students of Nursing College to observe Suicide Prevention day